

PUR UMEED SOCIETY

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
FOR THE YEAR ENDED
DECEMBER 31, 2024

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT
TO THE MEMBERS OF PUR UMEED SOCIETY

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of the PUR UMEED SOCIETY (the Society), which comprise the Statement of Financial Position as at 31ST December 2024, Income and Expenditure Account, statement of cash flows for the year then ended, Statement of Changes in General Fund and notes to the accounts, including a summary of significant accounting policies.

In our opinion, the financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Society and its financial performance for the year then ended, together with the notes forming part thereof conform in accordance with reporting policies as adopted by the Society.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with specific engagement and standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are independent of the Society within the meaning of International Ethics Standards Board for Accountants 'Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. We draw attention of the financial statements which describes the manner of appointment of auditors. The auditors were appointed on the request of members to conduct a special audit other than general, legal and statutory. As a result, the financial statements may not be suitable for another purpose. Our report is intended solely for the Society and should not be distributed to parties other than the Society and the parties as agreed in the engagement. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these financial statements in accordance with adopted policies, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Society's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Society or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Society's financial reporting process.

The objectives of our audit are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with adopted standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

As part of an audit, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the planning and performance of the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Society's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Society to cease to continue as a going concern.

We are required to communicate with the management regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.
